Rev. Jos. G. Lennon, of the Virginia Conference, and wife are visiting in elson on north St. Asaph street.

Mr. James M. England, formerly of this city, and Miss Maud Talbot, daughter of Mr. Pert Talbot, of Ozen Hill, Md., were married in the Methodist Church at that place, on Tuesday night last. Many of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom from this city and Washington were present.

Dr. Wilmer, of Washington, came here last night, and with Dr. Smith made an examination of the eyes of Mr. Walter Roberts, who was shot while hunting in Delaware on Wednesday evening. Both the doctors agreed that while the injury to Mr. Roberts' eye is a serious one, a shot having entered his eye, there were hopes of saving the sight.

Mr. P. F. Marbury, of the R. & D. R. R., has returned to Atlanta.

MEMORIAL MEETING.—A memorial meeting to pay tribute to the late Gen. W. H. F. Lee was held at Fairfax Court House last Monday. Major B. F. McVeigh was made chairman and Mr. F. W. Richardson secretary.

Major McVeigh on taking the chair made a touching and eloquent speech in eulogy of Gen. Lee. He was followed by Hon. R. W. Moore, Rev. J. C. Hall and Dr. D. R. Lindsey, all of whom paid handsome tribute to Gen. Lee's memory. A committee, consisting of Messrs. James P. Maheen, Rev. J. C. Hall, E. M. Plimen, Dr. W. P. Moncure, John H. Harst, R. W. Moore, F. R. Ford, R. W. Gaillard and L. E. Hutchison, was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions in respect to the memory of Gen. Lee, and their report was unanimously adopted by the meeting.

FAIR.—The following is the vote for the various articles to be balloted for at the fair being held at Old Fellows' Hall by Alexandria Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.:

Lady's Gold Watch—Miss L. H. Cleveland, 10; Miss Mary Sampson, 3; Miss Mary A. Penn, 5; Handmade Silk Quilt—Mrs. Belle Miller, 5; Child's Clock—Mrs. E. L. Tyler, 4; Old Fellows' Ring—R. E. L. Tyler, 5; W. D. Zimmerman, 4; George W. Bonitz, 3; W. E. Hinrich, 5.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Pin—J. E. Mansfield, 3; E. H. Cook, 4; W. E. Lykes, 5.

Uniform Bank K. of P. Churn—William Sutton, 4; E. M. Boyer, 5.

Gen's Plain Gold Ring—W. H. Yatenon, 3; J. J. Downs, 4; Lambert Sullivan, 3; W. A. Harding, 10.

The fair will continue until next Wednesday, the 25th.

THE ARLINGTON RAILROAD MORTGAGE.—The Washington and Arlington Railroad Company placed on record in Washington yesterday a mortgage on the road, &c., to the Central Trust Company of New York to secure the issue of $500,000 bonds. The road is to begin at the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad depot, on Sixth and B streets northwest, and run to a point on the Potomac river at or near the "Three Sisters," where the company is authorized to maintain a bridge, and thence to the northwest entrance of Arlington Cemetery, &c. The mortgage secures 1,000 bonds of $500 each dated December 1, 1891, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum in United States gold coin of the present weight and fineness.

COMMITTED.—The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of John Conlow, who is charged with an assault on Mr. Harry Bader at the local depot on the night of the 12th inst. Conlow, who was represented by Mr. J. H. Greene, waived an examination and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury. Mr. Bader, who is rapidly recovering from the wounds inflicted with a knife by Conlow, was not able to appear. The statement that Conlow is not the name of the man but that he is the son of an insurance man in Richmond named Johnson, is denied by the Richmond Times, which says: "There is no Johnson in the insurance business in the city. None by that name is mentioned in the directory."

A RELIC OF ANTE-REVOLUTIONARY TIMES.—An old book was brought to Fairfax Court House a few days since by one of the residents of the village. The book was found to be one of the most valuable relics of ante-Revolutionary times. It contains the record of all the criminal proceedings of the place before the Revolution broke out. In it are entries going to show that George Washington was indicted under the laws of King George for not paying his taxes. It is also shown by this interesting volume that Washington had several narrow escapes from being sent to jail for contempt. There are many other records that will throw new light upon the early life of Washington.

PROPERTY SALES.—R. T. Lucas & Co. sold to-day at public auction for Messrs. Kaufmann, Strauss and Fisher, trustees, a lot of ground, with frame tenement thereon, situated in Alexandria county, on the west side of the Washington and Alexandria turnpike, about a half mile north of this city, containing about one and a half acres, to Kate McDermott for $800.

Also, for the same trustees, a lot of ground in this city situated on the west side of Henry street, between Queen and Princess, 24 feet on Henry street by 100 feet in depth, to Kate McDermott for $85.

THE MARKET this morning was tolerably well supplied with country produce, meats, &c., and prices bore a hardening tendency. Fresh pork was abundant, and poultry was well represented—the latter being on the rise. Butter and eggs are growing scarcer and higher, the former selling at 25-35 cts. per dozen for fresh, and the latter at 30 cts. per dozen. Butcher's meats remain unchanged in price. The fish benches displayed several varieties of the fatty tribe. There was an average attendance of buyers.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Morristown Times says of "Two Old Cronies," the musical comedy to be given to night: "The whole piece is made up of a lot of funny things on a slender string of plot. The wit is fine and the dancing neat, and the costumes and general 'go' of the piece all that one could desire for an evening's entertainment. The singing by the chorus of young women was clever. As a whole the 'Cronies' company is due for a bright future."

The Wheeling Register says of the play to be given Monday night by Harry Lindley's Castaway Co.: "The Castaways is without doubt superior to 'The World's Harbor Lights' or any other nautical drama presented here. It is a play with a purpose and carries with it a moral which is self-evident. Added to this, an elegant cast, elaborate scenery and good acting, we cannot wonder at its filling the Grand for the past week."

THE A. L. I.—Lieut.-Col. J. Lane Stern, Assistant Inspector General, in his report to the Adjutant General of Virginia, has the following to say of the Alexandria Light Infantry:

Company F—Captain inspected. Second Lieutenant in command. First Lieutenant absent. Non-commissioned officers not warranted. First Sergeant's chevrons not regulation. Uniforms old and unduly, not neat fits. One man splitting in the ranks. Several collars not standing nor uniform. Several belts loose.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cold with no prisoners and three lodgers at the station house.

Mayor Strauss this morning disposed of the following cases:

John Conlow, charged with an assault on Mr. H. Bader, was sent on the grand jury.

THE CONVENTION.—The democratic convention which meets here on the 24th to nominate a candidate for congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gen. Lee will be composed of 156 delegates as follows: Alexandria city 17; Alexandria county 3; Calverton 14; Fairfax 17; Fauquier 28; King George 5; Loudoun 28; Loudoun 14; Orange 11; Prince William 24 and Stafford 6.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Thanksgiving services will be held on Thursday at 11 o'clock in the morning in the M. E. Church South.

Mr. George Plimmer, of Prince George's county, Md., whose friends reported that he had disappeared, has been quickly stepping at a Washington hotel.

Mr. Lewis Young says that he did not go into the store of Messrs. Shafe & Warneck, on Vinegar Hill, on Thursday night, to have any disturbance, nor did he use any abusive language to Mrs. Shafe.

A Washington detective yesterday arrested Ryndale T. Cross at Manassas and took him to Washington, where he is charged with having passed in this city several weeks ago a number of forged checks.

At the democratic meetings held in the county on Thursday night the following delegates were elected to the congressional convention which meets in this city on the 24th: Arlington district, E. Velich; Washington, W. Payne; Jefferson, T. Sisson—all for Merceith.

The Parlor of the Alexandria Infirmary. Will be opened for donations on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1891, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. It will be remembered that Donation Day is reckoned as one of the seasons of supply for the support of the Institution; that to it we look for a sufficient amount of money and provisions to cover expenses until January 1, and also for a replenishing of house linen and other conveniences for culinary and household use. Will every one remember us? The more money with thoughtful care for the comfort of our patients and from all, both old and young, we look for something that will brighten and aid them and us in our efforts for them. A committee of ladies will be in attendance to receive all such donations.

By order of the Board of Managers of the Infirmary. nov21, 24&25 A. I.

I HAVE been a sufferer from catarrh for years. Having tried a number of remedies advertised as "cure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had resolved never to take any other patent medicine, when a friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy—an invaluable Balm.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Ave., Brooklyn.

The Stonebraker's Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

Gentlemen:—In my honest opinion I believe the genuine Stonebraker's Liniment (of which the Stonebraker's Chemical Co. are sole proprietors) is undoubtedly the best pain cure in the world. I have used other preparations that were recommended to me, some of which produced temporary relief, but I never in all my life used a remedy so sure, so positive, so soothing and penetrating as Stonebraker's Liniment. I have used it on both human and horse flesh, with the most flattering results. It cures every time. May its sales continue to increase until every suffering creature in the world is healed by its wonderful curative properties, is the sincere wish of Yours respectfully,

J. M. MURPHY, 59 H St., N. E. Washington, D. C.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trecothick are keepers of the Gov. Light-house at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two bottles, recovery was completely won. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Bro's drug store.
